Commitment to Community

Jewish Family Service of Northeastern Pennsylvania (JFS) has been there as a local human service organization serving both the Jewish and the broader community for over 100 years helping people with real needs who need real support.

Mission

Jewish Family Service is a human service organization, which reflects the Jewish tradition of caring and compassion for all people in need. Through professional counseling, advocacy and educational programming, our services seek to enhance and strengthen the quality of individual, family and community life.

JFS Vision

Jewish Family Service's goal is to help build a strong and satisfying family life. We seek to provide remedial and rehabilitative services to individuals and families whose functioning is being threatened or already deteriorating. Throughout the lifecycle we will promote and preserve the dignity, self-respect and independence of the individual to the fullest extent possible.

Accreditation

Jewish Family Service has maintained the highest national standards of professional performance as required by the Council on Accreditation for Children and Family Services valid through December 2021.

The Faces of JFS

As a noun the word face means the front, the surface, that of what we see. As a verb it means confront and deal with or accept.

A face helps show emotions; the friendly face of the secretary when you visit JFS, the troubled face of someone seeking help, the concerned face of a counselor, the proud face of a donor.

At Jewish Family Service face represents who we are and who we help. Every person be it a staff member, a client, a donor or a community partner is a face, a Face of JFS.

The staff at JFS is our most forward face. They are the most visible and notable to the people we help. Our board members and volunteers are out in the community as the face of JFS. Our donors are the face of JFS, without the generous contributions we could not do the work we do each day at JFS.

It is those faces each day that come to JFS seeking help or assistance that also represent the face of JFS.

You may be asking yourself, if everyone is included what's so special about being a face of JFS?

It's special because you are a part of something, whether seeking help or providing help you are doing your part to help build a stronger community. Be proud that your contribution is making a difference.

Thank you for your support and being a Face of JFS.

Why I'm including JFS in my Will, and Why You Should Too

By James Ellenbogen

As someone who has donated to organizations like Jewish Family Service for as long as I can remember, I have always been proud to support the good work they do. Each year I'm investing in the people and the programs that support the community I live in.

My history with JFS started long before me. Sam Samter, JFS's first president, was my great uncle. In 2002 as a living descendant of Sam, I attended in his honor JFS's 85th Annual Meeting where past presidents were honored. My connection with JFS would continue to grow and in 2004 I followed in Sam's footsteps and joined the JFS board, serving as secretary for two years. I would serve on the board from 2004-2012 and then again from 2014 - 2017.

It was during my second term when I decided that I wanted to make sure I was able to support JFS even after I was gone. I decided to include Jewish Family Service of Northeastern Pennsylvania in my will.

I believe in the mission of JFS, I have seen firsthand the good work they do and I know they will use my gift wisely so that I can continue to help lives, long after mine has ended. I've always considered myself a philanthropist. Many of us often think of philanthropists as those who give millions of dollars to organizations, but anyone can be a philanthropist, regardless of status or net worth.

I encourage everyone to speak to either Sheila at JFS or talk to your lawyer or advisor about a bequest. Bequests can be cash, securities, property, a percentage of an estate or a beneficiary of an insurance policy. Bequests will help non-profits like JFS survive and grow well into the future.

Having JFS in my will makes sure that the money that I have donated over the many years will continue to be put to work well into the future. I'm thankful for the work that JFS does, and I'm thankful that I'll be a part of their history forever.

James F. Ellenbogen

Consultations are by appointment. Evening hours and home visits are available.

Fees for service will be charged according to a set fee or a sliding scale based on family size and income. No one will be denied service because of an inability to pay a fee.

JFS is accredited by the Counsel on Accreditation for Case Management. Some services may be covered by your health insurance or Medicare.

Kosher Meals on Wheels

JFS, in cooperation with Meals on Wheels Office of Northeastern Pennsylvania and the Jewish Home of Eastern Pennsylvania, delivers kosher meals to those in need. Kosher Meals on Wheels (KMOW) are available to those people in our community who adhere to Kosher dietary requirements. The program serves those who are temporarily or permanently disabled and who require outside support in order to function independently at home. Kosher Meals on Wheels provides adequate, well-balanced, home delivered meals to those who are unable to shop for and unable to prepare meals for themselves. The meals are prepared at the Jewish Home of Eastern Pennsylvania under Kosher dietary guidelines. Kosher Meals on Wheels is able to accommodate most special diets, such as diabetic, low salt, low fat, chopped, etc. Recipients are billed monthly for Kosher Meals on Wheels. Funding for meals may be available from the Lackawanna County Area Agency on Aging for senior citizens who have a lower income and meet the full guidelines.

DentalCare Center

The Non-Sectarian DentalCare Center has been part of Jewish Family Service since 1920. This unique service is one of only two such clinics affiliated with a JFS in the United States. Jewish Family Service administers the DentalCare Center in partnership with licensed volunteer dentists from the Scranton District Dental Society and Fortis Institute to provide professional dental services.

All treatments are provided in private dental offices with initial examination and diagnosis at Fortis Institute Dental Hygiene Clinic, Scranton. Care includes a complete dental examination, x-rays, prophylaxis, restorations and extractions. Specialized services such as prosthodontics, endodontics, orthodontics, periodontal treatment and oral surgery are also offered at a reduced fee to the client.

Residents of Lackawanna County are eligible for services if they are financially unable to afford dental care. Eligibility is determined by a screening and application process completed by Jewish Family Service. The majority of patients receiving dental services have at least one family member employed, is on unemployment, supported by Social Security or Social Security Disability benefits.

Mae S. Gelb Food Pantry

The Mae S. Gelb Kosher Food Pantry, established in January 2001, was developed to provide assistance with food and other necessary household items to families and individuals during times of significant financial stress.

Clients include the elderly who may be isolated and living on a limited income, unemployed adults in need of interim assistance and members of our community who are struggling financially due to difficult family situations or declining health. Clients can make a self-referral to the Kosher Food Pantry or may be referred by family, friends and/or other social service agencies. If a client is known to this agency and receiving services in another program area, their social worker may also refer.

An appointment must be made with an agency social worker to complete a Kosher Food Pantry screening form. If determined that the client is eligible for pantry services, the worker will accompany the client to shop in the pantry area. The Food Pantry is supported by donations from the Gelb Foundation, generous community members, synagogues and other Jewish organizations.

There were 49 VISITS to the pantry this past year.

15 FAMILIES received help from the pantry this past year.

Both our parents enjoyed helping others. I guess you could say that it came naturally to them, although they each did it in a different way. My father was strategic and developed enduring ways to ensure that giving became an integral part of our lives. He created a foundation that of necessity was obliged to spend a portion of its money on others in need—through gifts to non-profit organizations.

My mother, known to all as Mae, took her giving personally. She was concerned with the needs of people she knew or heard about—whether they needed a ride or a kosher chicken or a warm coat; whether they lived next door or in another city or country. She did formalize her generosity in her will by leaving funds to create a kosher pantry at JFS for those who needed food on a regular basis. The Mae S. Gelb kosher pantry lives on, enhanced by gifts given in her memory by family and friends.

Bev Klein and Sondra Myers

Fresh Food Pantry

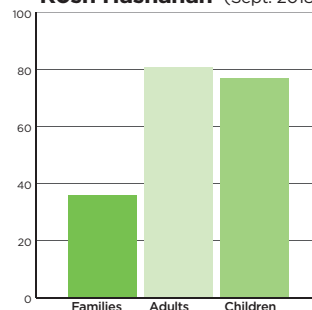

JFS introduced our Fresh Produce Pantry this past year. With produce and chickens donated, we were able to provide onions, potatoes, carrots, apples and chickens to those in need during Passover and Rosh Hashanah. The program is an extension of the Mae S. Gelb Food Pantry and our Holiday Assistance program. Due to the ongoing needs and success of the initial year the program will once again be held for both Passover and Rosh Hashanah this year as well.

JFS volunteers act as drivers and runners for Kosher Meals on Wheels, friendly visitors, shoppers for our Kosher Food Pantry and assist with preparing and delivering holiday gift projects to the homebound.

Volunteers who deliver the meals are interviewed and screened by Jewish Family Service.

These volunteers not only bring a nutritious meal to your home, but also provide a friendly greeting and an important safety check for each individual who receives a meal.
