IT'S TIME TO COME TOGETHER.

Sheila Nudelman Abdo

Executive Director

This past year was certainly not without our challenges both collectively and personally and we are proud that JFS was able to continue to respond to the needs of the community. This was only made possible due to the commitment of our staff, the Board of Directors, and most importantly the community. JFS was able to adjust, adapt and move forward to continue our mission serving others. Our social workers learned new ways of working and connecting to our clients. From in-person to telehealth, hours of zoom and phone, all our programs continued without a pause. The community, never wavering on their commitment to JFS, came together to make sure we had the resources to maintain our programs and services. This was no small achievement and represents a lot of hard work and dedication from many.

Grants from foundations, as well as the approval of the Payroll Protection Program, helped stabilize our agency with the necessary funds to continue our important mission. JFS thanks the Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation, The Scranton Area Community Foundation, The United Way of Lackawanna and Wayne Counties, The Jewish Federation, the Schwartz-Mack Foundation, Robert H. Spitz Foundation, the Lester G. Abeloff Foundation, Eureka Foundation, the Gelb Foundation and many others who supported JFS through this difficult time. Their commitment helped us provide our critical services to include Mental Health, Guardianship of Person and Kosher Meals on Wheels. It really does take a community to help a community.

Donor Legacy and Planned Giving during the past year has increased endowment building significantly and will allow JFS to continue to strengthen and sustain the stability of our organization for the future. The bequests of James Ellenbogen and Herb Rosen will add almost a million dollars to our investments due to their generosity, commitment, and foresight. These individuals saw the need and wanted JFS to evolve and continue to help the community. JFS thanks them and pledges to them that we will be good stewards of their investment. We will remember them.

As we look at the year ahead, we continue to set our goals to expand and develop additional programs, services, and resources consistent with our agency mission and vision. It is the hope that learning from our past challenges will help make our organization stronger and better and will create opportunities yet to come.

Together we can help build a stronger community.

BARBARA AND MEL SAPSOWITZ

MY PARENTS LEGACY... BY RABBI MARNA SAPSOWITZ

My mother, Barbara Rubin Sapsowitz, was a teacher, not just by profession, but constitutionally. She was a teacher to her core. Shortly after I was born, she returned to her teaching job --- but, in 1959, she was made to feel guilty for not staying home with her baby, so she left her job and became a full-time homemaker.

The influx of Soviet Jewish immigrants to American communities happened just as I went off to college. My mother believed strongly that the key to these new immigrants' success in their new land was a mastery of English, and she rolled up her sleeves to make that happen.

She got to know each newcomer's families, their education, their work histories, their skill sets. She tested each individual to determine their language skills. She selected level-appropriate learning materials for each student. She recruited and trained some 40 volunteer tutors from the community and made sure they had the training they needed to be effective tutors.

She made sure the new arrivals got introductions to American currency, the banking system and grocery stores. In addition, she snorred tickets to cultural events at places like the Masonic Temple and the University of Scranton for them, anything that would introduce them to American culture. Sadly, her work was cut short by her death in 1995.

My dad was a Chemistry major at Brooklyn College, where he met mother, the love of his life. Our family moved from New York to Northeast PA in 1965 when my Dad's company, Topps Chewing Gum, relocated. He eventually became Topps' Vice President of Research and Development.

My parents built a life in the Scranton area, developed close friendships, and became involved with and committed to community life.

After my mother's death, my father honored her memory by establishing and funding the production of the JFS Community Matters newsletter. In this way, he maintained his connection with the Scranton community for the past 25 years.

My parents were loving and generous people, and I am happy to enable the continuation of the newsletter in their memory.

Planned Giving is a method of charitable giving that involves a consideration of your retirement plan and/ or family estate to be distributed to Jewish Family Service upon your passing. For more information, or if you have designated JFS as a beneficiary please contact: Sheila Nudelman Abdo, Executive Director 570-344-1186. If needed you may share JFS's federal tax ID#24-0796423 with your attorney.

HERBERT ROSEN

MY FATHER'S LEGACY... BY NANCY ROSEN

My dad, Herb Rosen, of Stroudsburg died January 28, 2021. He and my mom, the late Sylvia Rosen, shared 64 years of marriage at the time of her death on June 9, 2019. My dad, along with his brothers Al and David took over the business established by his father, Nathan, founded in Hazelton in 1919. The brothers successfully grew Rosen's Furniture and expanded their business into the Stroudsburg area. During the mid-80's the Rosen brothers started on the road to retirement. Rosen's Furniture was a longtime, well-respected business for many years.

My dad immediately got involved with synagogue life when they moved to Stroudsburg when I was a young child. He was a humble man, who lived a simple life and always wanted to help others. He liked classical music, played a baby grand piano, and read the New York Times. My mom, Sylvia, played a big part in my dad's success and was a seamstress, an artist, a gourmet chef, and had a beautiful singing voice.

My parents wanted others to be helped through the blessings of their success and became known as local philanthropists. They thought of other people before they thought of themselves. Through the Herb Rosen Charitable Remainder Unitrust, with a major gift in the amount of $820,000, my dad wanted to have a significant, positive impact and continue his legacy. Jewish Family Service was an organization that my parents loved so dearly, and they wanted to make sure that JFS could provide critical services to the community now and forever.

FOOD INSECURITY

MAE S. GELB FOOD PANTRY

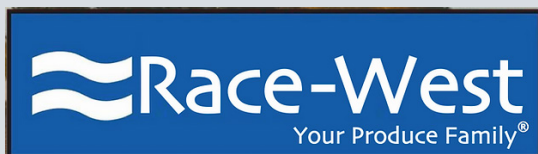

The Mae S. Gelb Kosher Food Pantry, established in January 2001, was developed to provide assistance with food and other necessary household items to families and individuals during times of significant financial stress. Clients include the elderly who may be isolated and living on a limited income, unemployed adults in need of interim assistance and members of our community who are struggling financially due to difficult family situations or declining health. Clients can make a self-referral to the Kosher Food Pantry or may be referred by family, friends and/or other social service agencies. If a client is known to this agency and receiving services in another program area, their social worker may also refer. An appointment must be made with an agency social worker to complete a Kosher Food Pantry screening form. If determined that the client is eligible for pantry services, the worker will accompany the client to shop in the pantry area. The Food Pantry is supported by donations from the Gelb Foundation, generous community members, synagogues and other Jewish organizations.

KOSHER MEALS ON WHEELS

JFS, in cooperation with the Meals on Wheels Office of Northeastern Pennsylvania and the Jewish Home of Eastern Pennsylvania, delivers kosher meals to those in need. Kosher Meals on Wheels (KMOW) are available to those people in our community who adhere to Kosher dietary requirements. The program serves those who are temporarily or permanently disabled and who require outside support in order to function independently at home. Kosher Meals on Wheels provides adequate, well-balanced, home delivered meals to those who are unable to shop for and unable to prepare meals for themselves. Dietary guidelines. Kosher Meals on Wheels is able to accommodate most special diets, such as diabetic, low salt, low fat, chopped, etc. Recipients are billed monthly for Kosher Meals on Wheels. Funding for meals may be available from the Lackawanna County Area Agency on Aging for senior citizens who have a lower income and meet the required guidelines.

FRESH FOOD PANTRY

JFS introduced our Fresh Produce Pantry two years ago. With produce and chickens donated, we were able to provide onions, potatoes, carrots, apples and chickens to those in need during Passover and Rosh Hashanah. The program is an extension of the Mae S. Gelb Food Pantry and our Holiday Assistance program.

VOLUNTEERING AT JFS

“Hello, my name is Nancy Post and I’m a JFS Volunteer.”

Born and raised in Scranton I’ve lived here all my life raising 2 children with my husband at our home in Green Ridge. I retired in 2019 after more than 20 years with Voluntary Action Center, most recently as Director of Volunteer Initiatives.

Volunteering is in my DNA. I have early memories of my mother volunteering at the Pine Cupboard Snack Bar at CMC as a Junior League member and both my parents volunteering extensively at church. When I joined the Jr. League of Scranton years ago, volunteering also became an important part of my life and taught me the importance and the reward of community involvement.

I have volunteered for a wide variety of organizations including Robert Dale Chorale Board member, Literacy volunteer, co-chair of Race for the Cure, co-chair of Santa’s Holiday World, Abington Library, church boards and committees. After spending much of my professional life working with seniors and senior volunteers; I’ve become very concerned with the issue of senior isolation. I was aware of the excellent senior programs and leadership at JFS and joined their volunteer program just as COVID intervened. It was suggested that I put my efforts to telephone “visiting”. These calls quickly became another layer of safety and support to homebound elderly.

I am thankful to have had the opportunity to help during this time of need. Every time I speak with my “person” it is a reward in itself and I hope to begin in-person visits soon!
