Welcome

In 1915, visionary leaders in our community came together to unify the efforts of various Jewish service organizations. Their goal was clear: to create an agency with a philanthropic and charitable mission, one dedicated to improving the quality of life for individuals and families in both the Jewish and general communities. This founding vision continues to guide the mission of Jewish Family Service (JFS) today.

Welcome to the 7th Annual Community Matters event – an evening that celebrates not only the mission and values of JFS, but the power of community itself. Each year, hundreds of individuals turn to JFS in pursuit of well-being, health, and stability. Clients are referred through schools, healthcare professionals, mental health centers, the court system, and – perhaps most meaningfully – through those who have themselves benefited from our services. We meet people where they are, addressing their needs and collaborating with community partners and funders to achieve positive, lasting outcomes.

Jewish Family Service of Northeastern Pennsylvania remains one of the region's leading human service agencies. For more than a century, we have worked to enhance the well-being of individuals, strengthen families, and uplift our community – serving both the Jewish and broader populations with dignity and compassion. As we gather tonight, we are reminded that no one carries the weight of community alone. JFS stands on the shoulders of those who came before us, and with your continued support, we will keep making a meaningful difference in the lives of our neighbors.

Thank you for joining us – and for helping us help others.

Sheila Nudelman Abdo, ACSW, LCSW
Executive Director

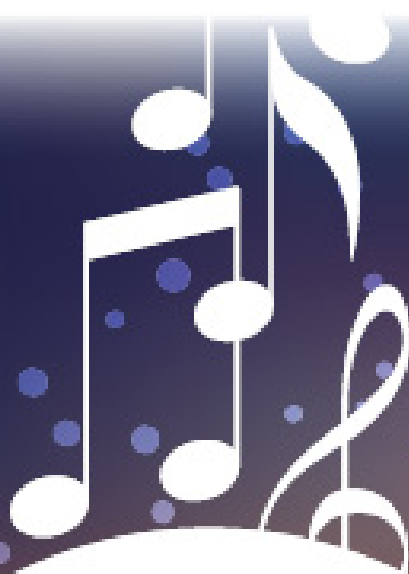

Dr. Daniel Ginsberg

2025 Honoree

Jim Alperin

Born in 1958 in Scranton, PA, to Myer and Joan Alperin, Jim is a proud graduate of Central High School and Lehigh University, where he earned a degree in Business Administration. After college, he joined his family's apparel contracting business, steering it through a challenging period of foreign competition. Under his leadership, the company evolved into a global enterprise, owning its brands and operating internationally. It specialized in producing menswear, childrenswear, and school uniforms in overseas factories. Headquartered in South Scranton, the business distributed its products widely and operated successfully until its sale in 2021.

Jim is married to Patty Flatz Alperin of Fort Lee, NJ, and together they take great pride in their four children: Rebecca (born 1984) living in New York City, Andrew (born 1987) living in Boston, Kristin (born 1991) living in Los Angeles, and Lucas (born 1995) living in New York City.

Deeply committed to his community, Jim has dedicated himself to numerous Jewish, civic, and educational organizations. In the Jewish community, he recently served as President of Elan Skilled Nursing and Rehab and as a Board Member of the Foundation for the Jewish Elderly. He has also served as Treasurer of the Scranton Lackawanna Jewish Federation and Vice President of Temple Hesed in Scranton, PA. Additionally, he has chaired both the Passage to Freedom campaign and the Annual United Jewish Appeal campaigns.

In the broader community, Jim has held leadership positions with the United Way of Lackawanna, Wayne and Pike County and the United Way of Pennsylvania, contributing significantly to campaigns, allocations, and leadership development. He has also served as a Board Member of the Ben Franklin Technology Center Regional Advisory Board, the Economic Development Council of Northeastern PA Labor Task Force, Junior Achievement of Northeastern PA, Young Volunteers in Action, and the Anthracite Heritage Museum & Iron Furnaces.

A strong advocate for interfaith understanding, Jim was a founding Board Member of the Community Forum of Abington Ecumenical Ministerium and served on the Advisory Board of the United Churches of Northeastern PA.

WHAT WOULD JIMMY DO?

JIMMY VOLUNTEERS HIS TIME TO ORGANIZATIONS THAT SUPPORT THE WELL BEING OF THE COMMUNITY.

JIMMY NOT ONLY DONATES HIS TIME BUT ALSO PROVIDES MONETARY SUPPORT TO CAUSES WITHIN THE COMMUNITY TO BENEFIT THOSE IN NEED.

JIMMY NOT ONLY SUPPORTS THE JEWISH COMMUNITY BUT ALSO THE COMMUNITY AT LARGE.

JIMMY LOVES HIS FAMILY AND IS THERE TO SUPPORT THEM AND LOVE THEM THROUGH GOOD TIMES AND BAD.

JIM IS A DEVOTED HUSBAND WHO LOVES AND CARES GREATLY FOR HIS WIFE, PATTY.

JIMMY AFTER FINDING HIS BALL DEEP IN THE WOODS WOULD FIND A 5 FOOT WINDOW TO HIT HIS BALL THROUGH THE TREES, THAT WOULD NEED TO CARRY A CREEK, MULTIPLE SAND TRAPS, AND LAND SOFTLY BY THE HOLE, BECAUSE JIMMY IS AN ETERNAL OPTIMIST!

AND THAT IS WHY US FRIENDS OF JIMMY, LOVE HIM.

HE'S A MAN WITH A HUGE HEART WHO CARES.
